"Particular importance will be attached to the recommendations on your behalf." Your references should therefore be selected with great care. Casual or general statements about you will be of little value. The following may be of assistance to your references:

"The Selection Committee will welcome any information which will aid in estimating this applicant's merits with regard to (i) scholastic record and ability in school; (ii) participation and achievement in the life and activities of the school and community (specific instances of interest in athletics, debating, public speaking, writing, dramatics, music, youth organizations, etc. will be helpful; (iii) character, personal qualities and temperament; (iv) interest in others and ability to lead them. It is not expected that you will be able to comment fully on all aspects of the candidate's application. The Committee will, therefore, be grateful if you will deal mainly with those of which you have definite and personal knowledge. Since Committees tend to be dubious of recommendations which imply that a candidate has no limitations whatever, a frank and critical evaluation of the applicant's qualifications will add to, rather than detract from, the force of your letter. As the Committee wishes to consider each case on its own merits, you are requested in this reference not to compare or contrast the applicant with others who may be applying for the Scholarship."
